

Chris Cebbrero . Jarvis Consulting

I hold a Bachelor's degree in Math and Computer Science and have a diverse professional background, interning at SAP, Beatdapp, and Coursera before joining Binance and Coursera as a full-time employee. While my experience predominantly lies in Front-End development, I'm eager to transition into Data Engineering. The software industry captivates me due to its constant challenges, engaging both my logical and creative faculties. My passion for software is fueled by the satisfaction of problem-solving and the dynamic nature of the field, driving my continuous pursuit of growth and excellence.
